Diversity in the workplace drives innovation and is critical to both corporate and community success. On December 2, please join us for a free conference of learning and networking with a diverse group of city leaders, employers, researchers and immigrant service providers. Together, we will explore key questions for today’s business community:

- How do employers create successful practices to recruit and maintain diverse talent?
- What does community and academic research have to say about “Canadian experience”?
- How do we mobilize diverse talent to ensure both corporate and community success?

Friday, December 2, 2011
8:30am to 12:30pm

North York Memorial Hall
North York Civic Centre
5110 Yonge Street

Public Transit: TTC North York Centre Station
Location: On the west side of Yonge St, five blocks north of Sheppard Ave
Parking: Municipal Parking (Green P) available on west side of Bescroft Road (see map below)
